Dear Andrew:

Could you please arrange an initial meeting for me with Ald. David Griffin, the Vice Chairman of Council's Finance Committee? You will appreciate that our contract demands that we prepare proposals which are feasible within Council's budgetary constraints, or alternatively, which can be made feasible. Planning and budgetting must go hand in hand.

You will also appreciate that we must propose the restructuring of Council's City Planning Department and that this needs to be considered in the light of Council's financing. Further, we must recommend budgets for action planning during 1971 and possibly through future years.

We feel that we should liaise closely with Council's Finance-Committee Vice Chairman in the process of this work. Could you perhaps arrange a quiet chat over lunch or drinks? It would be appropriate if I were to bring Dr Brian Scott and our Ken Hatten along to meet David Griffin, as the three of us will be working on the finance and budget implications of the Strategic Plan.

Yours sincerely

G.
