Mr. W. G. Clarke,
Managing Director,
Urban Systems Corporation Pty. Ltd.,
MLC Building,
Victoria Cross,
NORTH SYDNEY.

Ken Mc Clarke

I was sorry not to have been able to remain until the end of the seminar on "Management and planning in City Government" to say goodbye to you and to thank you personally for your co-operation with me in making this seminar the undoubted success which it was. A private engagement forced me to leave about 8.30 p.m. and I therefore missed the final discussion.

The Institute values your help and we like to express our appreciation by asking you to accept a pewter tankard as a memento of the occasion. This will be sent by hand in the next few days.

I believe we achieved our objective in that a wide and representative audience should now be better informed on the importance to them of the management of the City of Sydney and how the strategic plan will meet the needs for the future.

*Yours sincerely
Fred McAlister*

(F.B. McAlister).
