Dear Jonathan :

Thank you for the courtesy of your letter of May 16, to me and the copy of your letter of the same date to Andy Stenders. You leave with our blessings for the future development of your personality and your career.

I would very much like to know of the new opportunity that you are going to take up - whatever it is I wish you well.

Please do not hesitate to come back to us at any future time.

Yours sincerely

George Clarke
