Dear Mr Clarke,

On behalf of the members of the Steering Committee of the Science and Society Forum of the Australian Academy of Science, I would like to thank you for your contribution towards the success of the forum 'Science and Society in Australia'.

From press reports and other comments, it would appear that the Forum has succeeded in its aim of generating communication between scientists in otherwise unrelated areas, and between scientists and the community in general. An encouraging number of stories have already appeared in the press relating to the forum topics - quite apart from those relating to the Minister's announcement about the establishment of a science council and the student demonstration. Feature articles arising directly and indirectly from the forum topics are also expected to appear in a number of papers.

May I add my personal thanks for the part you played in making this first, and therefore somewhat experimental, activity of the Science and Society Forum so worthwhile.

Yours sincerely,

O. H. Frankel
Chairman
Steering Committee
Science and Society Forum
