Dear Dad,

I am hoping to see you (~~meant~~ I) in the Christmas holidays if mummy and I go overseas and I hope we will. Yesterday, after you had talked to mum on the phone we found all the places you are going next on the globe. Sasha is nearly one year old now and is nearly full-size. She is very useful at St. Albans. Whenever mum would drop something down the hill she

There'll be letters following from Andrew, Rebecca would race down the hill and retrieve it but when we go on walks she would whine and cry when she has to climb a big rock. Sasha has a boy friend ~~in~~ here called Sidney who lives just up the street.

We are getting some very hot weather here and we are starting to swimming again. Today is going to be 30°C. Last week I went to camp in the Kangaroo valley. I had a great time doing canoeing, carving, archery and going on bush walks. I made many friends. I wear your watch all the time, love Stephen
